The Royal Chiang Mai Golf Resort

The par-72, 7,200-yard course at the Royal Chiangmai Golf Resort was designed by five-times British Open champion Mr. Peter Thompson and the views around the course have a distinctly British flavour. A warning up-front: “Rough” here means what it says.

Gassan Panorama- Golf club

After a ten year closure, the Chiang Mai course re-emerged for the second time in 2017 under the Gassan Panorama Golf Club moniker. At 7,761 yards, one of if not the most extended course in Thailand, its unique distinction comes from all 18 holes designed around the contour of a large lake in Chiang Mai.

Artitaya Borneo Golf Resort

The scenic golf course design by local Mr. Senit, is surrounded by fields, orchards, jungle, and canyons. Water and bunkers are less prevalent than at other Chiang Mai golf courses. Playing at just over 7,300 yards from the back-tees, Artitaya Golf Course is relatively flat with slightly undulating terrain. However, a lot of walking is needed as some holes are far away from one another.

Chiang Mai Inthanon Golf and Natural Resort

Chiangmai Inthanon Golf and Natural Resort is a relatively new arrival. Designed by Mr. Supachai Silamom, it opened in 2009. As its name suggests, it has magnificent views of famed Doi Inthanon, Thailand's highest mountain.
