Toscana Valley Golf Course

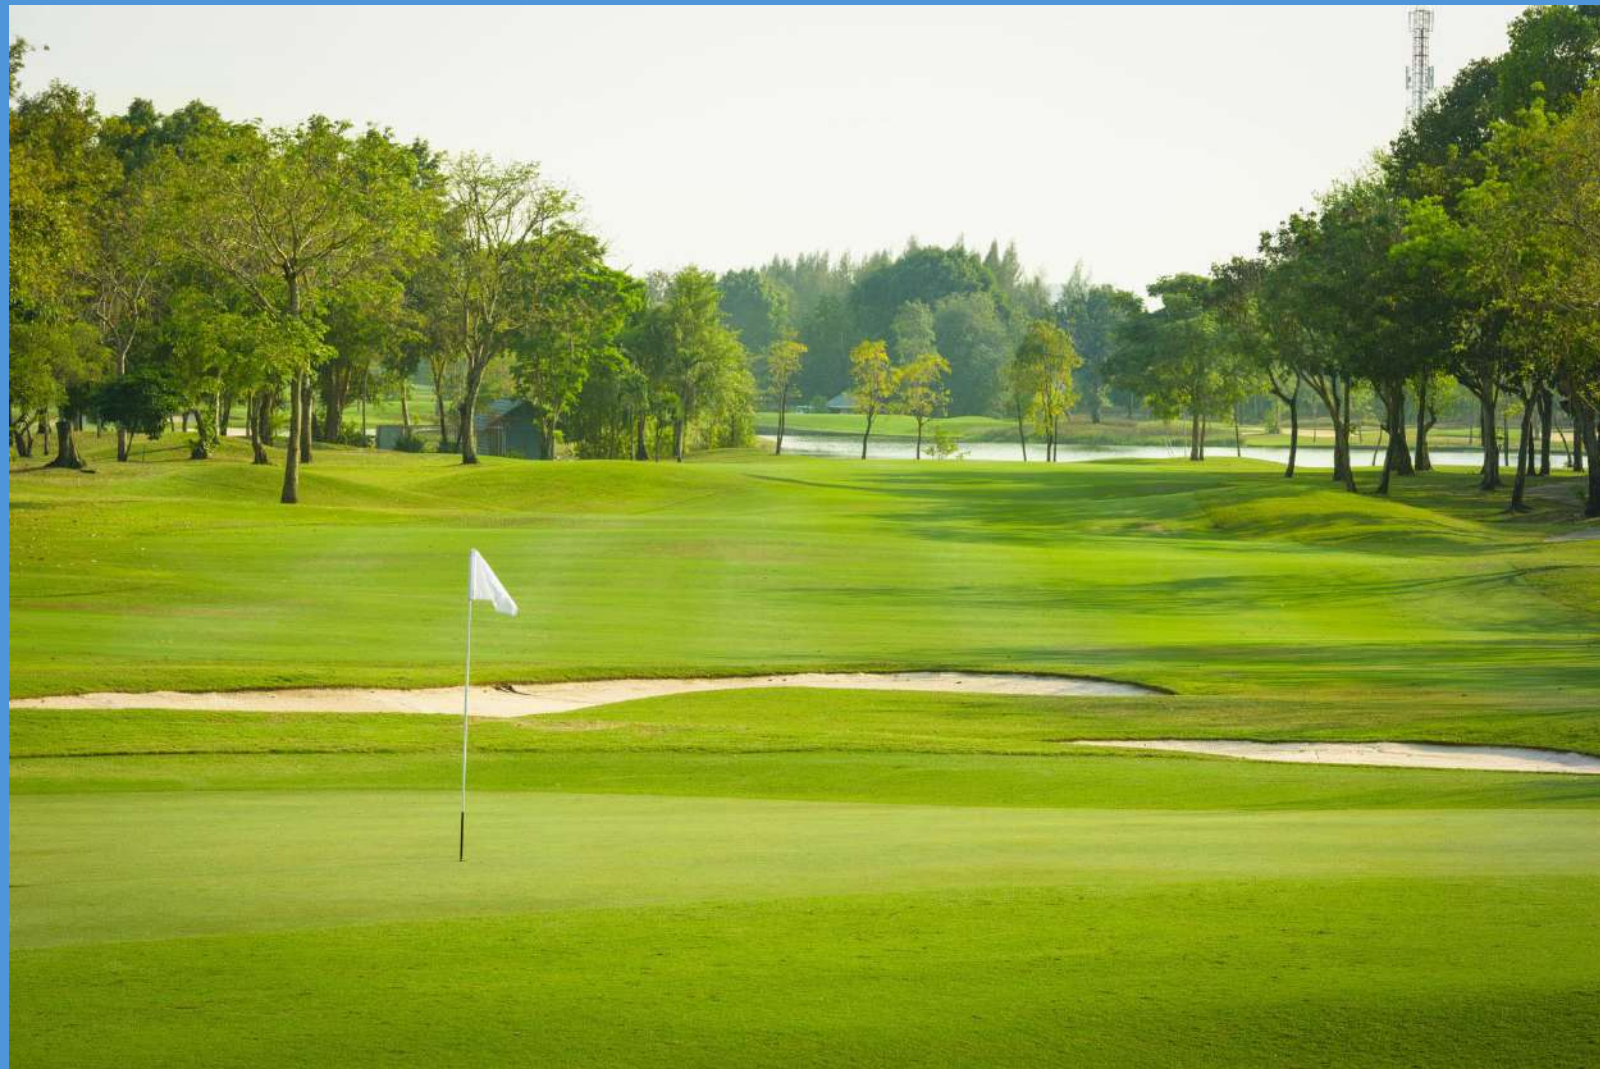

It is built into a natural valley, and includes deep bunkers, challenging contoured fairways, dramatic drop-offs and raised greens. Toscana Valley draws its inspiration from Italy, and boasts a Mediterranean feeling, with distinct flora and architecture.

Khao Yai Golf Club at Mission Hills

It is set between two valleys, tucked into rolling hills and renowned for its stunning views of the Khao Yai mountainscape from the back nine.

Korat Country Club Golf & Resort

Korat Country Club Golf Resort is a pretty course surrounded by mature wood lands. From the blue tees the par fours are challenging, and the layout is a fair test for most handicappers. Approach shots to the rather small greens are made easier as the trees in the background assist the player in judging the distance.
